EAST AFRICA BAPTIST SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

2019 Semester 2 Schedule of Courses Offered

(3rd Aug – 22nd Nov), 2019

TUESDAY 7:00am–9:15am

Interpreting 1, Jonathan Moore & Andrew Matoke, EABST 1

Required for all programmes (3 hours for Bachelor's & LDP / 4 for Master's)*

The course will provide instruction and application of the interpretive skills required to identify the author's intention for writing, as it is expressed in the text, providing the final determinant of meaning.

The overall objective of this course is to determine the fundamental biblical principles regarding the mission of the church and its role in missions, developing guidelines and strategy from these principles for a local church's involvement.

Introduction to Biblical Theology (Covenants), Philip Mwaniki, EABST 2

Required for LDP, Bachelor's, and Master's programmes (3 hours for Bachelor's & LDP / 4 for Master's)*

— Binder Required

Biblical theology is the study of the Bible that allows the biblical texts to “speak for themselves” and strives to discover the central themes that emerge from the Scripture’s overall big picture (metanarrative). Thus, this course seeks to understand the basic message of the Scriptures and the major motifs of both testaments, which will form the basis for developing a life-view that is consistent with God’s plan and purposes.

TUESDAY 10:30am–12:30pm

Beginning Greek I, Daniel Huffstutler (meets Tues AND Thurs), EABST 2

Elective (3 hours for Bachelor's & LDP, 4 hours for Master's)*

This course is an introductory study of the grammar of Koine Greek. This class covers basic parts of speech including nouns, pronouns, and adjectives in all three declensions, as well as adverbs, conjunctions, prepositions, and verb tenses in the indicative mood.

SEE: Galatians, Jonathan Moore, EABST 2

Prerequisites: Interpreting 1*

One credit hour is earned for total hours of related labor including: preparation, experience, class time, reflection, and reporting. (Certificate requires 20 work hours; LDP: 35 hours; Bachelor's: 45 hours; Master's: 60).*

This course is designed to hone the student's skills in interpreting and applying the Bible. The class will collaboratively practice the methods learned in Interpreting 1 to extract the author’s intention in Galatians and create lessons that communicate that book’s message to the 21st century.

WEDNESDAY 7:00am–9:30am

Methods in Writing, Jonathan Moore, EABST 1

Required for LDP, Bachelor's, and Master's programmes (2 hours practicum)*

This course will guide the student into obtaining skills in well-informed, and well-reasoned theological composition that meets EABST's standards of clarity and precision. The course culminates with a theological research paper on "The Means of Assurance of Salvation," which will serve the student well in answering questions he will receive on this issue in future ministry.

THURSDAY 7:00am–9:25am

Old Testament Theology—Former Prophets, Jonathan Moore, EABST 1

Required for theology programmes (3 hours for Bachelor's & LDP / 4 for Master's)*

Prerequisites: Interpretation 1*

— Binder Required

This course will study the books of Joshua, Judges, Samuel, and Kings—the books classified as the Former Prophets in the Hebrew canon. It lays the foundation for a lifetime of work in the Former Prophets, introducing the student to the processes and resources necessary to develop a biblical theology of the Former Prophets. Time will also be devoted to the process of moving from biblical theology to its application in the culture.

THURSDAY 10:00am–12:15pm

Old Testament Survey, Jonathan Moore, EABST 1

Required for Certificate & LDP (2 hours for Certificate, 3 hours for Bachelor's & LDP, 4 for Master's)*

The survey of the Old Testament teaches the basic theme, purpose, occasion, and general content of every Old Testament book, showing the relationship of books, placing them in historical and geographical context and discovering the central themes of the Old Testament as a whole. The course will present the Old Testament's hope of the coming King and his Kingdom.

Beginning Greek I, Daniel Huffstutler (meets Tues AND Thurs), EABST 2

Elective (3 hours for Bachelor's & LDP, 4 hours for Master's)*

This course is an introductory study of the grammar of Koine Greek. This class covers basic parts of speech including nouns, pronouns, and adjectives in all three declensions, as well as adverbs, conjunctions, prepositions, and verb tenses in the indicative mood.
